Frequently Asked Questions

Becoming a Client

How do I sign up to become a client of JDP?

Signup is easy, go to jdp.com/inspiringhr and complete the online portal form.

Am I locked into a contract with JDP?

No, JDP's agreement does not contractually obligate you to utilize JDP's services. If at any point you are unsatisfied with JDP's services, we request that you provide 60-day notice of intent to no longer perform searches through JDP. There is no termination and/or cancelation fee.

What is the cost to have an account with JDP?

There is no initial fee to sign up for a JDP account and your organization will only pay for the background checks that are submitted—there is no minimum or maximum to the number of checks that must be processed.

What are the payment options? How will we be invoiced?

When your organization signs up for a JDP account you will be asked to provide a credit card number. JDP uses this credit card to bill your organization monthly based on the checks completed the previous month. If you have not processed any checks, you will not be billed. If your organization does not have a credit card, please contact the JDP team for alternative methods of payment.

Background Checks with JDP

What is the cost of running a background check with JDP?

The cost of running a background check varies. JDP is proud to offer screening solutions for every budget. If your requirements dictate processing a search you do not see noted, please reach out to the JDP team for further discussion as not all our offerings are outlined.

How long will the background checks take to complete?

Typically results are returned in less than 48 hours. Depending on the scope of the background check, results may be returned within a few minutes, while others such as county checks may take longer.

How do I start/initiate a background check on my candidates?

All that's needed to initiate a background check is your candidate's first and last name(s) and their email address. Once your account has been setup with JDP, you will be provided with a user guide and contact information for the U.S. based JDP partnership team to whom further questions can be directed.
